About This Game

In Stick Spartans up to four Spartans fight by poking each other with sticks to claim the golden helmet.

Stick Spartans brings fast paced family friendly action to the living room with simplistic and easy to learn controls. Each player controls a Spartan which can run around this confined arena in teams or solo to eliminate the opposing players and rein victorious claiming the golden helmet.

In this arena players poke each other to steal health with their wooden sticks, health is indicated by the bands around their stick. When you run out of health you are eliminated until only one Spartan remains. You can Jump to dodge an attacking Spartan's Stick.

The environment has dust clouds created by player movement, In a large battle the dust cloud can cover up some of the combat so keep track of your player.

Match settings can be adjusted before play like: Stick length, Dual wielding, and movement speed.

Message to Devs; This is a good idea for a game but right now It is hard to see it as more than a 'Harbinger' clone. I have a couple of ideas I believe that would help stabilize the game and differentiate it from the aforementioned 'Harbinger'

1. Expand the ships selection, mostly the recon class ships (something cheap and fast to scout early)
2. Make the other Species playable in skirmish. would go along way to make this game feel fresh and new compared to it's predecessor.
3. And finally Simplify everything from the ui to the research and ship progression; it's fundamentally flawed as of the moment.

Message to my fellow gamers; You'll probably get more out of 'Harbinger' as of this moment ;). This is how you make a horror game, Its been a while since a game made me feel genuinley scared and infliction doesnt do this through cheap jump scares, instead it builds suspense and tells the story through ingame clues and discovery, im looking foward to playing more.

For the asking price? Avoid.. Feels like more of a D2 clone than other aprgs. Still a ton of work to go but it will be a great game that I put many hours into.

The game is pretty bare bones but it is fun and playable currently. They already have some events with prizes.

<https://lastepochgame.com/meet-the-team/>. Downloaded the game as they said the single player was free.

Well apparently they made the pvp free.

This would be fine if there was anybody else online to start a match, but as it stands you cannot create a custom match alone and there is not enough people online to play.

So the free version is unplayable. Don't waste your time downloading this.

Perhaps I would have bought the game if I was even given a brief tutorial \(5 mins\) but I can't even see the gameplay without spoiling it online so I guess I shall take my money elsewhere. Elite dangerous is pretty cool. If you want a SOLO PLAYER experience then there is a really old version available for download that has tutorials so you can see if the game is for you.

Pretty good graphics, decent soundtrack. It has some bugs but overall I can give a positive review.

A decent horror game for its price (39 cents).

. Unlike anything I've ever played before. Mindblowing.. A brilliant conclusion to a truly wonderful game series.

The second game was quite a hit to start with, although I missed the wonderful accents of the German actors trying to sound as English as possible. This third installment improved on literally everything. Well, apart from the catastrophic ending! However, it can be overlooked if you're purely playing because you're a fan of the series. Unfortunately, the ending barely made any sense because they jumbled every fact they had collected together to make some sort of explanation as to why Mordred is doing these things. It was unsatisfying, but that is the only negative side to this game.

Not as many puzzles as in its predecessors, which for me is great because they drive me absolutely ♥♥♥♥ing mental, but for those who are going out of their way to look for them it's a little disappointing; plus they've become a lot easier (or I've just become smarter, who knows?)

I definitely recommend it, honestly there aren't very many games out there quite like these, unless you want to delve into the 2004 wave of point-and-click and search through mounds of Nancy Drew until you find what you really enjoy.

Give it a go, it's always included in any Steam sale, especially the bundle for all three games which you can get for like 5 bucks in a sale.

It's worth it.

Trust me.. Its a game by Bujak. I know Bujak personally. #fame. RTK 11 with PUK is the absolute pinnacle of addictive Koei gameplay. Too bad about English. I was forced to memorize what the buttons do through trial and error. But it was well worth that pain.. Initial review which will be updated after more playtime (but in the meantime, this game needs to be seen by more people!):

This game is great. It's one of those puzzle games where you got to get your little guy to some end goal by building a track with various properties. What's great about this in VR is you can really get a feel for the 3D configuration that you're building and can watch from wherever you want.

I look forward to playing around with this one some more!. "HORROR PHRASE" Hideo Kojima would kill himself if he saw this game

. A short, pleasant and casual game with personality. A compact experience that's worth supporting the developer for if you enjoyed the first free game.

Very similar to the original with a few improvements:

-New chiptunes!

-More abilities [gameplay variety]

-More Challenging [maybe?]

I really like how something as simple as auto firing and not being able to strafe meanwhile damage heals you creates a disconnect between getting near enemies and running from them. You can get up close with the multi-spread to do damage or sneak in more healing while also risking your current health. If you're low, you can try to run but, eventually, you're going to need to run back in to heal.

Also you can date a door, 10/7 Masterpiece :]. A cool beautiful casual hexagonal game, after a long day of battling and what not chill out with this game.. Amazing game, although a few minor bugs, and a particular boss that lacks a voice, i thoroughly enjoyed this game, its fair, fun and is challenging, its not too easy and has many fun and unique mechanics, such as some bosses having different ways of attacking them, and theres achievements for those who want to push themselves further. After killing/defeating a boss you get a huge sense of accomplishment and just draws you back, while i had some painful moments in this game, i enjoyed it in the long run. I definitely reccomend this game if you like difficulty and game similar to Rogue-likes but with a set toolkit and no RNG (Except for some boss attack patterns). It would probably a 9/10 for me if i were to rate it.

Drunk On Nectar - The Nature Simulator Sacra Terra: Angelic Night Just Beat Em Up : World of Fury How do you like it, Elon Musk? RETSNOM Invisible Apartment Differently Fast Quible Sphere everybody's sad 1.1.1 - Snap Rotation Added:

It's been so wonderful reading all the kind words and watching videos of people playing since our Steam launch! Thanks for checking out our game :)

Patch Notes

- Snap Rotation has been added! It's mapped to the grip button/trigger. On the left controller it will rotate you 30 degrees left. The right controller will rotate you 30 degrees right.
  - Glitch where music was not playing at the end of the game should be fixed
  - Candles can now be picked up
  - Colliders adjusted on the game console so you gamerz can now slot in those cartridges
  - Modified a spoilery thing
